SETTLING NEVADA.

Settlement of Nevada is an old story. It is a story which has been told many times over. It is a story of the struggle for the land, the water, and the gold. It is a story of the struggle for the future of the state.

JACKSON, WYO., FINDS WOMAN GOVT. IS GOOD

(City Associated Press)
JACKSON, Wyo., June 8.—Jackson, after a year's trial of petty government, has found it good. Half a century ago the first jury of women to be impaneled in the United States was drawn in Wyoming and 20 years later Wyoming is proud, and won its point, that it be admitted to the union without any single change in its constitutional provision giving women equal suffrage rights with men. Since then the feminist movement has developed astonishingly. And so, when the votes were counted at Jackson Tuesday night, May 10, they showed the following results:

For mayor Mrs. Grace Miller, 57; T. W. Spicer, 21.
For councilmen: Mrs. Genevieve Van Vleet, 67; G. R. Blaine, 19; Mrs. Faustina Haight, 66; Almer Nelson, 18.

Just a year ago this picturesque little western town with a population of 526 by the latest census, nestling beneath the boisterous peaks of the great Teton in the heart of the famed Jackson Hole country, started the nation by turning out its man-made administration and installing a town government made up entirely of women. The victory was all the more notable because of the fact that Mrs. Ross Crabtree had been elected to the town council over her own husband. Evidently the women of Jackson had decided to spoil the town's glamorous reputation as the rendezvous for bad, bold, two-gun desperadoes.

The exact issue in the campaign a year ago is a matter for argument, but whatever it was the women of Jackson won decisively. This year it was the same thing over, a three-to-one landslide.

During this year's tenure, the five women of the town's administration managed to keep Jackson clean, morally and physically, and in addition they brought about a number of municipal improvements. They transformed what used to be country lanes into city streets; they acquired

MACKEREL SWIM SAME WAY THE EARTH REVOLVES

(City Associated Press)

LONDON, England, June 9.—The question why the mackerel in the aquarium here always swim from left to right around the rock in their tank and never vary the direction of their endless journey has puzzled many and even when the question was recently asked at a meeting of the Sussex Sea Fisheries committee no one was able to supply the information. At a later meeting of the committee the clerk offered a solution of the question.
He said he had received a letter from Mrs. Gilbert, of Greenacres, Pa., who said she had read an article in an American paper about this mystery. She was of the opinion that the reason for the one-way swimming of the mackerel was that they swam in harmony with nature, or, in other words, with the motion of the earth.

BRITISH TRYING TO PUT MUZZLE ON PROPAGANDA

(City Associated Press)
LONDON, June 8.—Determined efforts are being made by the British home office to get at the bottom of bolshevik propaganda in this country, according to the Daily Dispatch, which says that reports have been received of dangerous activities of the bolsheviks in London and Scotland.

Reports have been carried out by Scotland Yard detectives on alleged bolshevik meeting places and offices and it is reported that sensational disclosures have been made.

While searching one building the detectives found a small room containing books which are declared to be those of Rosa Luxemburg, the German socialist who was killed in 1918 about the same time as Karl Liebknecht, the communist agitator.
